El Paso County GOP Head Decries Divisive & Demented Fearmongering by Biden...A Reaction Shared by Conservatives Throughout Colorado

Vickie Tonkins was shocked but not silenced by the president's rude, hateful speech.

COLORADO SPRINGS, CO (September 1, 2022) – “That speech was the stuff of dictators and despots,” exclaimed Vickie Tonkins, chairman of El Paso County’s Republican party. “It was unsuitable for Americans’ ears and unfit for the mouth of an American who sits in the highest seat of America. Divide, divide, divide – what’s wrong with that man? By hook and by crook, we’re watching the strings of the rudderless cronyist in the White House being pulled by an administration full of un-American zealots, desperate collectivists, and Obama-era retreads whose goal appears to be to sink this great nation. Times that try men’s souls should temper our beliefs in American ideals as laid out by the founders and strengthen Americans resolve to stand up with our fellow citizens to reinforce the goodness that is the American way, not poison us against friends and family.

“The only plus that could come from tonight’s White House impression of a tone-deaf Iron Curtain dictator is that millions more U.S. voters of every color and creed will be driven to peaceful political activism for the betterment of conservative Constitutional values. The man sitting in the White House and his dangerous foolishness will be a boon to the GOP in 2022. God bless America.”
