

STATEMENT FROM THE EL PASO COUNTY REPUBLICAN PARTY REGARDING THE RECENT MAYORAL ELECTION

The election of Yemi Mobolade marks a decisive turn away from the principles upon which our nation was founded. Any illusion that Mayor-Elect Mobolade is “unaffiliated,” or moderate, or politically centrist is quickly dispelled by examining the Democrat Party’s celebration of his victory this past Tuesday, not to mention Jared Polis’ effusive congratulations.

Yemi has clearly aligned himself with the Democrat Party and leftist ideology. Anyone who considers himself/herself a conservative American (regardless of party affiliation) should be alarmed at Yemi’s and the Democrats’ proclamations of progressivism, equity, social justice, and other such leftwing buzzwords. These types of policies have led to decay, destruction, violence, and tyranny across this great nation at local and federal levels.

In short, Yemi is anything but unaffiliated and he is committed to serving the same far-left agendas that have been the ruin of our country.

The mayoral race outcome is the result of apathy among conservatives. Yemi did not have a strong conservative opponent around whom we could unite once the general election ended. Now we are confronted with the task of damage control to mitigate the harm leftwing policies will bring to our communities.

As conservatives, we must unite in order to reclaim our constitutional republic. Although “unity” has been a common theme preached at and among Republicans, it stopped short of identifying something around which to unify. It should be clear, now, that we must unify around the documents and the ideals that founded our nation: The Declaration of Independence and The US Constitution. The only pathway to restore our republic is to renew our commitment to following the founding principles that secured our God-given rights and freedoms.

The El Paso County Republican Party invites anyone who shares the vision and has the desire to return our community and our country to its originally intended purpose to join us in this most noble of endeavors. And we urge everyone to read the 2016 Republican Party Platform for a clear understanding of what we stand for and what our agenda is.

God Bless America and God Save Our Republic,
